

Two Settler's Green stores made donations to the White Mountain Community Health Center's patient food pantry. Kerry Lane of Lane Bryant and Gwen Anderson of Harry and David recently presented the donations to Patricia McMurry, executive director of the health care center. Administrative Assistant Suze Hargraves said the center can always use donations for the food pantry, which is used to help patients of the center when they are in need. Last year the center provided more than 3,000 meals to patients. The center welcomes donations of such food items as hearty soups, beef stew, canned vegetables, canned fruit, peanut butter and jelly, baked beans, spaghetti sauce, canned tuna, unsweetened cereal, hot cereal, canned chicken, canned turkey, canned ham, frozen meats, crackers, juice, apples, potatoes, rice, ravioli or pasta, baby food, formula, baby cereal, bread or muffin mix, nuts in bags or cans and microwave popcorn. Donations are accepted Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the center, located at 298 White Mountain Highway in Conway. For more information, call 447-8900 ext. 328.
