

Nurse retiring after 40 years

Kristy Lavertue, a registered nurse in the pediatric program at White Mountain Community Health Center, announced her retirement after 14 years with the health center. Ms. Lavertue, a graduate of the Mary Hitchcock School of Nursing, has served the communities of northern New Hampshire throughout her entire career. The staff, management and Board of Directors of WMCHC wish Kristy well in her future endeavors.