

Curves Food Drive benefits area food banks

(Courtesy Photo)

Curves of North Conway conducted an annual fundraiser and food drive to benefit Vaughn Community Center, Brown Church, River Church and White Mountain Community Health Center. Tracy Strout, owner of North Conway Curves, reported the generous Curves' members donated a total of over $500 and 2,316 pounds of food to the four nonprofit food banks. Pictured (left to right): Tracy Strout and Patricia McMurry Executive Director White Mountain Community Health Center.