

Harry and David of Settler's Green in North Conway once again showed its support for the White Mountain Community Health Center Food Pantry with a generous donation. Community support of all food pantries is desperately needed during these tough times. Businesses and individuals can make a big difference with a donation of cash or non-perishable goods.

Picture Left to right:

Debbie Kelly, Patricia McMurry (Executive Dir. WMCHC) and Jen Sealey.